Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1770.

Charles-Town, February 3, 1770.

THE ſubſcriber intending to leave of public School-keeping by Eaſter at fartheſt, entreats the favour of all thoſe indebted to him, to diſcharge the ſame as ſoon as convenient, there being an abſolute neceſſity for cloſing his affairs. His ſpacious, commodious SCHOOL, will then be to let, and his curious ſelected LIBRARY, to be ſold, with the ſchool furniture. He then intends to offer his ſervice to whom it may ſuit, to be a teacher in a private family, or an aſſiſtant in a 'compting-houſe, or to attend a ſtore in town, or country, not too far off. In any of which employments, tho' in years, he flatters himſelf he ſhall be found capable, diligent and faithful, and recommendations of his friends at this critical criſis, will be particularly obliging, to the public's,

Obliged, obedient, humble ſervant,
OSBORNE STRATON.

THE Subſcriber finding himſelf greatly diſappointed in collecting in his Debts, very little regard being paid to his former Advertiſements, is reduced to the diſagreeable neceſſity of lodging all his accounts in the hands of an Attorney, to be ſued for without diſtinction or further notice, after the firſt day of March next. And as the keeping of Books has been attended with great loſſes to him, he is determined while he continues in buſineſs, to ſell his Liquors, &c. for CASH ONLY; this method he is reſolved to abide by, and earneſtly hopes, that the Gentlemen who favour him with their cuſtom, will avail themſelves of this Notice.

Charles-Town, February 5, 1770.

THE Co-partnerſhip of the ſubſcribers, having ended with the laſt month, they earneſtly requeſt all perſons indebted to them, to diſcharge their reſpective debts immediately; and thoſe to whom they are indebted, may aſſure themſelves of having their accounts ſettled as ſoon as poſſible.

N. B. They entreat their country friends, to give orders to their merchants or factors in town, to ſettle their accounts for them, with all convenient ſpeed.

EDWARD JOYCE, SURGEON,

His Great AMERICAN BALSAM,

Extracted from the beſt Medicinal Herbs, &c. for the Cure of the following Diſorders, incident to human Nature; proved by Experience in NEW-YORK, LONG-ISLAND, and elſewhere, to equal, and rather exceed any Balſam, Eſſence, or Elixir, &c. exported from Europe here, for the ſeveral Diſorders hereafter mentioned.

FOR common green or freſh Wounds, it heals at once or twice dreſſing, by cloſing the Lips of the Wound, and laying on the Wound a Pledgit of Lint dipt in the Balſam. In Nervous Wounds, where the Blood Veſſels are divided, &c. it ſtops the Blood immediately, and heals by a few Applications. For the Cure of the moſt inveterate Ulcers, only waſh them and keep them clean, uſing firſt, if there be any proud Fleſh, a common Cauſtick to take the Excreſſence away, then apply the Balſam on Lint. If the Ulcers ſhould happen to be fiſtulous, inject by a Syringe, and after, cloſe the Orifice with a Pledgit dipt in the Balſam, and ſo repeat.

There are Witneſſes undeniable of the Balſam alone curing a Fiſtula in Ano, now preſent in New-York: The Author of this Balſam (under God) will engage to cure a Fiſtula in Ano, even if the Rectum is perforated, without Inciſſion, except as much by a Lancet to make way for Injection, and no more.

For the Cure of Colds, attended with violent Coughing, Pains in the Breaſt, Inflammation in the Throat and Glands, Difficulty of Breathing, being obſtructed by tough viſcid Phleghm, by taking a Tea-ſpoon full of the Balſam, mixed with Sugar or Honey, it quickly cures, taken twice a Day, Morning faſting, and at Night going to Bed.

It is exceeding good in all Manner of Swellings; for violent Falls or inward Bruiſes, nothing is better, for it ſcatters coagulated Blood, and ſtops Blood that might be occaſioned by the inward Parts being hurt, or a Rexis of the Veſſels inwardly.

In the Cure of Pleureſy, after Bleeding (where it is required) give a Tea-ſpoon full three Times a Day, in Sugar, and between Times now and then 20 or 30 Drops of ſpirituous Nitre Dulcis, that is the ſweet Spirits of Nitre,—it cures.

It cures Conſumptions in them that are not too far gone, except they paſs the Age of Fifty, by taking of it inwardly three Times a Day, a Tea-ſpoon full mixt with Sugar or Honey, each Doſe. It ſtrengthens the Nerves, and is good in all Nervous Diſorders, by taking of it inwardly, and anointing the Parts outwardly, keeping warm.

A SERMON, preached at the Anniverſary Meeting of the PLANTER'S SOCIETY, in the Pariſh of St. David, on Great Pe Dee, Auguſt the 7th, 1769.

From a late ENGLISH PAPER.

To Sir F------ B-------.

FROM developing the character, connections and conduct of your patron, L----- H-----, I come now to an enquiry into thoſe of his favourite G--------. From birth, Sir F------, you derive no ſplendor; it would even take more trouble, than I am inclined to beſtow upon a ſubject ſo inſignificant, to draw it from abſolute obſcurity. From abilities, neither would you ever have claimed attention, had it not been for the memorable æra of the Stamp-act. It was then that your Excellency ſtept forth, and juſtified this obſervation of an incomparable female hiſtorian, that "groveling inſtruments of oppreſſion are ever inſolent in office, in proportion to the baſeneſs of their education, and the ſervility of their natures." You became from that period the incendiary of Great-Britain and her colonies, and the eligible inſtrument of eſtabliſhing deſpotiſm in America to that ſet of men, who were meditating the ſame deſtruction to the conſtitutional liberties of England.

You are now to appear at that tribunal, from which there is no earthly appeal; the tribunal of the public. Here the upright magiſtrate has every thing to hope, the oppreſſor every thing to fear.

I begin with your firſt appearance during the ſtamp-act: your repreſentation then was, that the intention of the colonies was to render the authority of Great-Britain contemptible. This charge is brought againſt you, in the moſt ſolemn manner, by three and thirty Lords, ſpiritual and temporal; the validity of it therefore is hardly queſtionable †. The intention of it, Sir F----, is equally obvious: To inflame the minds of his Majeſty's Miniſters and of the legiſlature, ſo as to divert their attention from the juſtice of the American complaints, to a criminal and exaſperating intention in their oppoſition, which exiſted only in the malignity of your own heart. Governed thus by ſuppoſed intentions, and not by real facts, this country was to have denounced war againſt her colonies, and to have cut aſunder, with her own ſword, the ſinews of her commerce and of her wealth, to gratify the malice of an arbitrary, provincial Baſhaw. Happily, however, your views were, at that time, diſappointed; and your vengeance reſerved for a more favourable opportunity, which too ſoon preſented itſelf in the advancement of your preſent patron to the American department. The Stamp-act was repealed, and the thanks of the Americans for the repeal were tranſmitted, in Addreſſes, to our moſt gracious Sovereign, without once mentioning the declaratory act, which threw a melancholy ſhade on the future proſpect; ſo far were the colonies from ſeizing every ground of complaint, or being ſollicitous to draw into contempt the authority of Great-Britain. Every thing was now quiet in America, ſo that even in your own government the people acted "with temper and moderation." May we not conclude then, Sir F------, that your charge was as groundleſs as it was malicious? A charge, in which you were ſupported by one other Governor only.

*The tranquillity of America and the harmony between the two countries were now reſtored; and would, in all probability, have laſted for ever, had not the ſame arbitrary and offenſive ideas been reſumed, and drawn into exerciſe over the colonies. The Duty-act excited the alarm that had ſubſided, and furniſhed, to your ardent wiſh, a freſh opportunity of miſrepreſenting and embroiling the affairs of America. In this laudable ſpirit, we trace you next inveighing, in your letter to the Earl of Shelburne, againſt the Circular Letter from the Repreſentatives of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, to the other Houſes of Aſſembly; which was ſolely to inform them that the Houſe had voted an humble, dutiful, and loyal petition to his Majeſty, laying before him the grievances they ſuffered from the late Revenue-Act, and praying his conſtitutional interpoſition for their relief; to make the prayer of which petition more ſucceſsful, they deſired the concurrence of the other Houſes. As the grievances ariſing from the act were general, the propriety of a general petition for relief was obvious: and it is left to your Excellency to point out, what method an aggrieved people can adopt, more loyal, more innocent, and more conſtitutional, than petitioning the throne. In your letter, however, you repreſent this moſt dutiful and moderate tranſaction, as an "undertaking calculated to inflame the whole continent, and engage them to join together in another diſpute with the parliament, about the authority of the latter; and that if the act complained of ſhould be given up, all other acts of American revenue muſt follow" .

Thus you flattered yourſelf with having fixed an early prejudice againſt the juſt repreſentation of the people, and an inſurmountable bar to the redreſs of grievances. But the Noble Lord who then preſided over the affairs of America, impreſſed with a true ſenſe of the conſtitutional rights of the Colonies, viewed your attempt in its proper light; and you would have met what you deſerved, another diſappointment, had not the department fallen, in an evil hour, to one perfectly fitted for your purpoſe, which was, in truth, to inflame the whole continent, and renew the diſpute ſo little profitable to either country. How happily your patron and you have ſucceeded in this, the ſtate of America from that time to this will abundantly demonſtrate. You have had the pleaſure of hearing your own words re-echoed back from the empty heads of your ſuperiors here; your plans have been adopted, and have kindled flames which rendered you unſafe in America, and may conſume you here. Raro antecedentem, ſceleſtum deſervit pede pœna claudo. JUNIUS AMERICANUS.

KINGSTON, (in Jamaica) DECEMBER 23.

ON Monday laſt died, at Greenwich-Park, in the pariſh of St. Andrew, the honourable Zachary Bayly, Eſq; who, by an unremitting exertion of many diſtinguiſhed talents, had happily acquired a fortune reſponſive to the great benevolence and hoſpitality of his diſpoſition.------By this event the public ſtands deprived of a very valuable member of ſociety; his family of a relation endeared to it by every act of the tendereſt affection; his intimates of a warm, a ready, and a faithful friend; his ſlaves of a kind, conſiderate, merciful maſter; and every ſpecies of merit of a conſtant generous patron.

His Excellency has been pleaſed to appoint Harry Trelawny, Eſq; to be Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the port of Kingſton, in the room of the honourable Zachary Bayly, Eſq; deceaſed.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS we have thought fit, by and with the advice of a Council of War, holden at the town of Saint Jago de la Vega this day, to declare MARTIAL LAW, for the ſecurity and protection of our ſaid iſland: THEREFORE, in purſuance of the ſaid reſolution of the ſaid council of war, We have cauſed this proclamation to be publiſhed, hereby commanding and requiring, that the articles of war, be publicly read this day, at the towns of St. Jago de la Vega, Port-Royal and Kingſton; from which publication, Martial Law is hereby declared to be in force. Witneſs his Excellency Sir WILLIAM TRELAWNY, Bart. Captain-General and Governor in chief, &c. &c.

PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER 28.

On Thurſday the 7th inſt. the honourable John Penn, Eſq; attended by his council, the mayor, recorder, and commonalty of this city, preceded by the ſheriff and his officers, went in proceſſion to the court-houſe, where a new commiſſion, prolonging the time for his government of the province of Pennſylvania, and the counties of Newcaſtle, Kent, and Suſſex on Delaware, was read, in the preſence of a concourſe of people.

JANUARY 4. From New-Caſtle we learn, that in the night of the 14th of December, the Treaſurer's office was broke open, and robbed of a conſiderable ſum of money; that ſome of the family having heard a noiſe, got up, and alarmed the neighbourhood, when ſeveral perſons went immediately in ſearch of the robbers, ſeveral of whom were taken and confined in gaol; and that another of them was purſued out of town and taken, after making ſome reſiſtance, by cutting one man badly on the hand, and wounding another on the groin; on ſearching him about eighty pounds of the money was found upon him.

From Cadiz we learn, that the beginning of October his Majeſty's ſhip Winchelſea, Capt. Goodall, in going into Cadiz, run on the rocks, and was obliged to cut away all her maſts, and with the aſſiſtance of the Engliſh, Spaniſh and French men of war in the Bay got off, when they rigged jury maſts, and proceeded to Gibraltar.---That about the middle of the ſame month the Algerines took a valuable Daniſh ſhip from Hambro, value one million of dollars, and ſent her to Algier, but a few days afterwards the Algerine fell in with a Spaniſh zebeck, and, after an obſtinate engagement, was taken, whereby the Daniſh Captain and his crew was releaſed from ſlavery: The ſame Spaniſh zebeck, about the laſt of October fell in with the largeſt Algerine zebeck belonging to the Moors, which they after a very bloody action; this veſſel was commanded by their Admiral, and was ſaid to have one hundred gentlemen volunteers on board. -----That the commerce of Spain is much diſtreſſed by the plate ſhips being not arrived in time.

Extract of a Letter from London, November 1, 1769.

"I am very much inclined to believe, that unleſs you relax ſomewhat, we ſhall have no Connection together, at leaſt for one Twelvemonth. There is a Rumour of an Intention to give you one General Aſſembly for the whole Continent, or perhaps two, and that every thing is to be properly ſettled when the Parliament meets, but it is impoſſible with our Miniſtry to adjuſt ſo weighty a Matter in ſo ſhort a Time. I am ſtill of Opinion the Duties upon Glaſs, Paper, and Painters Colours, will be repealed, but as certain that the Duty on Tea will remain. Our Manufactures are ſo little ſenſible of the Want of their uſual Trade with you, that People begin to entertain an Idea, that America never was of Half the Conſequence to us that it was generally imagined to be; an Opinion that can never be your Intereſt to confirm. The Seaſon, as I wrote you before, is unfavourable to your Reſolutions; the Ruſſian War, and other Circumſtances, concur in occaſioning an unuſual Demand for our Manufactures. I do not ſee there are the leaſt Diſpoſitions to make Repreſentations to Parliament for your Relief, which ought to convince you, that you were more indebted to the Merchants acting from a Motive of Principle, rather than Intereſt, in promoting the Repeal of the Stamp-Act; for I aſſure you, there is ſome Degree of Remembrance of paſt Tranſactions remaining, which diſcourages us from acting ſo ſtrenuouſly as we might otherwiſe be inclined to do, had our Friends given us our due Degree of Merit for our former Services; you yourſelves have taken the Field, and I wiſh you Succeſs in every conſtitutional Relief you may aim at obtaining.------Your Hints are good, with reſpect to ſhipping Goods, and at a proper Seaſon I will profit by them, but cannot now think of making any further Proviſion whatever, for a Time that appears ſo diſtant. For my own Part, I declare I ſee no Poſſibility of any Trade to your Part of the World, till next Spring Twelvemonth. Thus far with reſpect to Trade, which is now leaſt thought of.

"Affairs here grow very critical; the Counties are petitioning for a Diſſolution of Parliament; I think the Times wear a gloomy Appearance; the Nation in general much diſſatisfied, and God knows what will content them; but I am of Opinion, there will be ſome Bills of Attainder paſſed, before long, upon the Heads of one of the two Parties. Many ſuppoſe us ripe for Rebellion, but it is too ridiculous an Idea to attempt to refute; the Miniſtry are not ſtrong enough to bring Matters to ſo deſperate a Criſis."

NEW-YORK, DECEMBER 20.

This day his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor was pleaſed to iſſue the two following PROCLAMATIONS, viz.

"WHEREAS a certain ſeditious paper was lately printed, publiſhed, and diſperſed in this city, directed, "To the Public" in the words following: 'The ſpirit of the times renders 'it neceſſary for the inhabitants of this colony to convene, 'in order effectually to avert the deſtructive conſequences of 'the late baſe ingloricus conduct of our General Aſſembly, who 'have in oppoſition to the loud and general voice of their con-'ſtituents; the dictates of ſound policy; the ties of gratitude; 'and the glorious ſtruggle we have engaged in for our inva-'luable BIRTH-RIGHTS, dared to vote ſupplies to the troops, 'without the leaſt ſhadow of a pretext for their pernicious 'grant. The moſt eligible place will be in the Fields, near Mr. 'De La Montagne's, and the time, between 10 and 11 o'clock 'in the morning, where we doubt not every friend to his coun-'try will attend. LIBERTY.' Which paper having been taken into conſideration by the General Aſſembly of the ſaid province, the Houſe did, on the 19th day of December inſtant, come to the following Reſolutions thereupon. "Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That the ſaid paper is an infamous Libel, and contains a ſcandalous reflection on the conduct, honour, and dignity of this Houſe. Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That the author or authors of the ſaid paper, is, and are guilty of a high miſdemeanor. Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his honour the Lieutenant-Governor, requeſting he will be pleaſed to iſſue a Proclamation, offering a reward of Fifty Pounds, to any perſon or perſons who ſhall diſcover the author or authors of the above recited paper, ſo that they may be brought to condign puniſhment." I have therefore thought fit, by and with the advice of his Majeſty's Council, to iſſue this Proclamation, hereby in his Majeſty's name, offering a reward of Fifty Pounds, to any perſon or perſons, who ſhall diſcover the author or authors of the above mentioned paper, ſo that he or they be thereof convicted: And over and above the ſaid reward, I do hereby promiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious pardon to any accomplice or accomplices, who ſhall diſcover the author or authors of the ſeditious paper aforeſaid. Given, &c.

DECEMBER 25. We hear that Andrew Elliot, Andrew Oliver, Charles Morris, and Jared Ingerſol, Eſqs. commiſſioners for ſettling the boundary-line between the colony of New-York and New-Jerſey, met at Hartford in Connecticut, the 16th inſtant, according to adjournment, when the agents of both colonies offered to enter their appeals; but there not being a ſufficient number of commiſſioners to conſtitute a court, thoſe preſent ordered the appeals to be lodged with the clerk of the court, and gave the agents ſeverally a certificate of their having tendered the ſame at the time and place appointed; and then adjourned, to meet at New-York the 4th day of July next.

On Monday laſt at twelve o'clock, a conſiderable number of the inhabitants met in the fields, not leſs than fourteen hundred, in the opinion of a military gentleman who ſaw them, and is well acquainted with the appearance of that number and the ground they would occupy, where they appointed a gentleman to propound queſtions relative to the vote of the honourable houſe of aſſembly, for granting money for the ſupport of the troops. After their determinations thereon, they appointed a committee to communicate the whole tranſaction to their repreſentatives: in conſequence thereof, all the committee (except Mr. John Thurman, who declined ſerving) met, and agreed to make their report the next day to their members: accordingly on the 19th, at eleven o'clock, eight of the committee went to the City-Hall and delivered it.

To the Freeholders, Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of New-York, that met in the Fields on Monday laſt.

"Gentlemen, Agreeable to your requiſition, the committee appointed by you, except Mr. Thurman, who declined ſerving, have made the following report to your repreſentatives, to wit.

To John Cruger, James Jauncey, James De Lancey, and Jacob Walton, Eſquires, Repreſentatives for the City and County of New-York, in General Aſſembly;

"Gentlemen, This day a very conſiderable number of the inhabitants met in the fields, to conſider of the inexpediency, and dangerous conſequences that would reſult to this colony and the common cauſe of liberty, by granting money to ſupport his Majeſty's troops. After waiting on the ground from eleven to twelve o'clock, they appointed a gentleman to propound the neceſſary queſtions, in order to gain the ſentiments of the people; which being done, he ſtated and explained the vote paſſed by the honourable Houſe of Aſſembly, for ganting the money to ſupport the troops. After a ſmall pauſe, the queſtion was put, Whether they approved of the vote of the houſe of aſſembly, for granting the money to ſupport the trooops? which was carried in the negative, there being but very few for the affirmative; not more in our opinion than five or ſix. And then the queſtion was put, Whether they were for giving any money to the troops on any conſideration whatſoever? which was carried in the negative, there being not more for the affirmative than there were on the former queſtion. Immediately thereupon the queſtion was put, Whether they would appoint a committee to communicate the whole of this tranſaction to their members? which was carried in the affirmative; and accordingly the following gentlemen were appointed, viz. Jacobus Van Zandt, John Lamb, Iſaac Sears, Samuel Broome, James Van Vaurk, Eraſmus Williams, Caſper Wiſter, Thomas Franklin, jun. John Thurman, and Alexander McDougal."

The Repreſentatives received the committee with decency; and in general, returned for anſwer, That they were of opinion the majority of the inhabitants were diſpoſed to give money to ſupport the troops, and that it was now too late to pay any regard to the above report of the committee. Mr. John Lamb being the perſon who propoſed the queſtions in the preceding report, Mr. De Noyellis charged him therefore with being an abettor to the papers ſigned, "A Son of Liberty," and "Legion," and moved the honourable houſe to order Mr. Lamb to appear before it, to anſwer for that conduct: and as what he did in the fields, is the undoubted right and privilege of every Engliſhman, the committee conceiving themſelves equally concerned in propounding the queſtions with him; and therefore wrote Mr. De Noyellis the following Letter.

"Sir, WE the members of the committee, whoſe names are hereunto ſubſcribed, appointed by the inhabitants that met in the fields on the 18th inſtant, conſider ourſelves as parties in the queſtion put by Mr. Lamb there, and therefore, Sir, you may conſider us in the ſame predicament with him; and as you are ſo ſolicitous to bring him to the bar of the honourable houſe of aſſembly, to anſwer for that conduct, we take this method to inform you of our ſentiments on that ſubject, and are ready to anſwer for our conduct in a conſtitutional manner. We are, Sir, your humble ſervants, Iſaac Sears, Caſper Wiſter, Alexander McDougal, Jacobus Van Zandt, Samuel Broome, jun. Eraſmus Williams, James Van Vaurk."

The 6th inſtant, a ſeſſion of the general aſſembly of the province of New-Jerſey, ended at Burlington, during which ſeſſion, twenty-ſix acts paſſed, which were aſſented to by the governor, and the aſſembly prorogued to meet next at Perth-Amboy. Among thoſe acts paſſed, are, An Act for the ſupport of the government. An Act for ſtriking 100,000l. in bills of credit, with a ſuſpending clauſe till his Majeſty's pleaſure be known. An Act to ſettle the quotas of the ſeveral counties. An Act for the relief of inſolvent debtors. An Act for ſupplying the barracks. An Act againſt horſe-ſtealing. An Act to regulate the ferries. An Act for the preſervation of oyſters. An Act for the preſervation of deer. And, An Act to lay a duty on negroes imported.

JANUARY 8. His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, was pleaſed to give his aſſent to the following Acts laſt Friday. An Act for making a further proviſion of 2000l. for furniſhing his Majeſty's troops quartered in this colony with neceſſaries for one year. An Act for emitting the ſum of 120,000l. in bills of credit to be put out on loan, and to appropriate the intereſt ariſing thereon to the payment of the debts of this colony, and to ſuch public exigencies as the circumſtances of this colony may from time to time render neceſſary.

JANUARY 11. The Merchants of Boſton, having been informed by the Committee of Inſpection, that Three of the Subſcribers to the Agreement for Non-Importation, regardleſs of the Preſervation of their Country and the Britiſh Conſtitution, had baſely violated their Faith and ſolemn Engagements, by a ſecret and clandeſtine Diſpoſal of ſtored Goods, contrary to their Promiſe and Honour; upon which it was reſolved that their Names and infamous Conduct ſhould be publiſhed, in order that they might be known, and treated as they deſerve. They were publiſhed accordingly.

From the VOTES of the ASSEMBLY of New-York.

Jovis, Nov. 30, 1769.

RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this committee, that the legiſlature of this colony cannot paſs a law that will fully anſwer the good purpoſe of regulating the Indian Trade, without the harmonious co-operation of the neighbouring colonies concerned therein; and that this committee are further of opinion, that the moſt proper ſtep to be taken at preſent is, that a bill be brought in for appointing commiſſioners, to meet with commiſſioners who may be appointed by the neighbouring colonies, to fix on a general plan for the regulation of ſaid trade, that laws may afterwards be paſſed conformable thereto. And the ſaid reſolution being read a ſecond time, Reſolved, That this Houſe doth agree with the committee in the foregoing reſolution. Ordered therefore, That a bill be brought in for appointing commiſſioners to meet with commiſſioners who may be appointed by the neighbouring colonies, to fix on a general plan for the regulation of the Indian Trade; and that Mr. Mynderſe, Mr. Ten Eycke, Mr. Ten Broeck, Mr. De Witt, and Mr. Clinton, prepare and bring in the ſame.

Lunæ, Dec. 18, 1769.

Mr. SPEAKER laid before the Houſe, a printed paper delivered to him by the mayor of this city, accompanied by the ſheriff, directed "To the betrayed Inhabitants of the City and Colony of New-York."----[This Paper being very long, we have not Time or Room to inſert it in this Day's Gazette.]

Martis, Dec. 19, 1769.

The order of the day for taking into conſideration the printed paper, preſented to the Houſe by the Speaker yeſterday, being read, a motion was made by Mr. De Lancey, in the words following, viz. "Mr. Speaker, I move, that the ſenſe of the Houſe be taken, whether the paper now before this Houſe is not an infamous and ſcandalous libel." And a debate ariſing upon the ſaid motion, and the queſtion being put thereon, it paſſed in the affirmative, in manner following, viz. For the Affirmative, Mr. Gale, Mr. Jauncey, Mr. De Noyellis, Mr. De Witt, Mr. Clinton, Mr. Ten Broeck, Mr. Ten Eyck, Capt. Seaman, Col. Woodhull, Mr. Billop, Mr. Walton, Mr. Boerum, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Rapalje, Mr. Nicoll, Mr. Van Kleeck, Mr. Kiſſam, Mr. Mynderſe, Mr. Van Cortlandt, Capt. De Lancey. For the Negative, Colonel Schuyler.

A motion was made by Mr. Thomas, in the words following, viz. "Mr. Speaker, as the enſuing ſeſſion of parliament will probably be, of all others, the moſt critical and important to the American colonies, and there are the moſt urgent reaſons for ſtrengthening the agency of the colony at the court of Great-Britain: I move, that Stephen Sayre, Eſq; of London, be joined as an aſſiſtant to Robert Charles, Eſq; and I am the more induced to recommend the ſaid gentleman, from his abilities and inclination to give us a ſpecimen of his ſervices without expence to the colony." And a debate ariſing upon the ſaid motion, and the queſtion being put thereon, it paſſed in the negative, in manner following, viz. For the Negative, Mr. Gale, Mr. Walton, Mr. Jauncey, Mr. De Noyellis, Capt. De Lancey, Mr. Mynderſe, Mr. Van Cortlandt, Mr. Billop, Mr. Ten Eyck, Mr. Nicoll, Mr. Van Kleeck, Mr. Kiſſam, Mr. Boerum, Col. Seaman, Capt. Seaman. For the Affirmative, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Ten Broeck, Mr. De Witt, Mr. Clinton, Col. Woodhull, Mr. Rapalje."

Mercurij, Dec. 20, 1769.

A MOTION was made by Col. Schuyler, in the following words, viz. "Mr. Speaker, I move that Mr. Edmund Burk may be appointed Agent for this colony in the room of Mr. Charles." Reſolved, That the conſideration of the ſaid motion be poſtponed till Wedneſday next.

A motion was made by Mr. De Noyellis, in the words following, viz. "Mr. Speaker, I move that Mr. John Lamb be ordered to attend at the bar of the Houſe, to anſwer for his conduct relative to two libels on the journals of this Houſe." And a debate ariſing upon the ſaid motion, and the queſtion being put thereon, it paſſed in the affirmative in manner following, viz. For the Affirmative, Mr. De Noyellis, Mr. Jauncey, Mr. Van Cortlandt, Col. Seaman, Mr. Billop, Capt. De Lancey, Mr. De Lancey, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Rapalje, Mr. Gale, Mr. Van Kleeck, Mr. Walton, Mr. Boerum, Mr. Mynderſe. For the Negative, Mr. Ten Broeck, Col. Woodhull, Capt. Seaman, Mr. De Witt, Mr. Nicoll, Mr. Kiſſam, Mr. Ten Eyck, Mr. Clinton. Ordered therefore, That John Lamb attend the bar of this Houſe, at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, to anſwer for his conduct relative to two libels on the journals of this Houſe.

Jovis, Dec. 21, 1769.

JOHN LAMB attending at the door, purſuant to the order of the Houſe yeſterday, was called in, and examined touching his conduct about the two libels on the journals of this Houſe; and after ſeveral queſtions were aſked him relative thereto, and it not appearing to the ſaid Houſe that he had acted in conſequence of the ſaid two libels, at the meeting of a number of the inhabitants of this city, in the fields on Monday laſt. Ordered therefore, That the ſaid John Lamb be diſmiſſed.

BOSTON, JANUARY 8.

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman in London, to one in Boſton, dated November 1, 1769.

---"Lord Hillſborough does not ſpeak with that certainty of a repeal next ſeſſion, as he did ſome months ago; and with regard to the duty on tea, he is entirely for keeping it on, and only for taking off the duties upon paper, glaſs and painters colours. As for Governor Bernard he has deſired, in anſwer to your petition, to be heard before the King and council; and the proofs ſent to ſupport the allegations in the petition, will not have ſo much weight, as his conduct (as my Lord Hillſborough ſays) was by order from the miniſtry; however they don't ſeem to have any inclination to ſend him back to your government, but only that he may reſign with an eclat."

At the Court of Common Pleas, now ſitting in Boſton, for the county of Suffolk, is to come on an action of treſpaſs, wherein James Otis, Eſq; is plaintiff, and John Robinſon, Eſq; defendant. The ſum demanded in damages is ſaid to be £. 3000 ſterl. His Majeſty's writ of original ſummons on this occaſion, is very elegantly engroſs'd on the beſt gilt paper, as nearly in ſize and quality to that required in humble petitions to the board of commiſſioners here, from thoſe in their power, as could be procured either at the Milton manufacture or elſewhere. The above writ was ſerved according to the laws of this province, not by holding to bail, but by leaving a tranſcript engroſs'd in the ſame hand and paper at the defendant's houſe.

By virtue of a commiſſion lately received from the Right Honourable, and moſt worſhipful the Earl of Dalhouſe, grand-maſter of ancient, free and accepted maſons in Scotland, on Wedneſday were ſolemnized at a grand-lodge of ancient, free and accepted maſons in this town, held at Maſon's Hall, the inſtalment of the moſt worſhipful Joſeph Warren, Eſq; provincial grand-maſter of ancient, free and accepted maſons in North-America; on the occaſion there was an elegant oration. After the inſtalment there was a grand entertainment.

We hear one ſingle perſon has had ſpun within ſix months in this town, by children (chiefly) that have been learned to ſpin during that ſpace, thirty-ſix thouſand ſix hundred and eighty ſkeins of fine worſted yarn, which will make about ſeven thouſand three hundred and twenty yards of fine womens apparel, it is hoped it will ſoon be all weaved, dyed and dreſſed in the province factory houſe in Boſton.

HALIFAX, (in Nova-Scotia) NOVEMBER 23.

Laſt Monday arrived the ſhip Hawke, Capt. McCadden, in ten weeks from Londonderry, with whom came Col. McNutt, and one hundred and eleven paſſengers as ſettlers in this province. In the late ſtorm on the 13th inſtant they ſuffered conſiderably, having been obliged to cut away their mizenmaſt, loſt their long-boat, and had every thing ſwept off of the deck.

ANNAPOLIS, (in Maryland) DECEMBER 28.

By the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly, November Seſſion, 1769.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That the repreſentatives of the freemen of this province, in their legiſlative capacity, with the aſſent of the other part of the legiſlature, have the ſole right to lay taxes and impoſitions on the inhabitants of this province, or their property and effects; and that the laying, impoſing, levying, or collecting any tax, on or from the inhabitants of Maryland, under colour of any other authority, is unconſtitutional, and a direct violation of the rights of the freemen of this province.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That it is the undoubted privilege of the inhabitants of this province, to petition their Sovereign, for redreſs of grievances, and that it is lawful and expedient to procure the concurrence of his Majeſty's other colonies, in dutiful addreſſes, praying the royal interpoſition, in favour of the violated rights of America.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That all trials for treaſon, miſprion of treaſon, or for any felony or crime whatſoever, committed and done in this province, ought of right to be had and conducted in and before the courts of law, held within this province, according to the fixed and known courſe of proceeding; and that the ſeizing and carrying any perſon or perſons to places beyond the ſea to be tried, is highly derogatory of the rights of Britiſh ſubjects, as thereby the ineſtimable privilege of being tried by a jury, from the vicinage, as well as the liberty of ſummoning and producing witneſſes at ſuch trial, will be taken away from the party accuſed. Teſt. T. WRIGHT, Cl. Lo. Ho.

WHEREAS the RHODE-ISLAND COLLEGE has been miſrepreſented, as being a contracted inſtitution, deſigned only for the benefit of the Baptiſts, &c. The Public may be aſſured to the contrary, as appears by the following quotation out of the Charter, viz.

"AND furthermore, It is hereby enacted and declared, That into this liberal and catholic inſtitution, ſhall never be admitted any religious teſts: But on the contrary, all the members thereof ſhall forever enjoy full, free, abſolute, and uninterrupted liberty of conſcience: And that the places of profeſſors, tutors, and all other officers, the preſident alone excepted, ſhall be free and open for all denominations of proteſtants: And that youth of all religious denominations ſhall and may be freely admitted to the equal advantages, emoluments, and honours of the college or univerſity; and ſhall receive a like, fair, generous, and equal treatment during their reſidence therein, they conducting themſelves peaceably, and conforming to the laws and ſtatutes thereof. And that the public teaching ſhall, in general, reſpect the ſciences; and that the ſectarian differences of opinions, ſhall not make any part of the public and claſſical inſtruction."

Coaſting Schooners, and inland Boats of any Size, may unload there full as commodiouſly and ſafely, and with as great Diſpatch as in any Dock in Town.—He has Stores already built that will contain about Fifteen Hundred Barrels of Rice, and is about building more. He will be much obliged to ſuch Perſons as will order their Produce to be landed at his Wharf, where, whenever they are inclinable to ſtore their Rice or Indico, &c. they will be as ſafe from all Dangers, particularly from Fire, as in any Stores in the Province.—He will be particularly attentive to give their Boats the utmoſt Diſpatch, and as he is ſure the Produce of the Province can be diſpoſed of at his Wharf to as much Advantage as any where elſe, ſuch of his Friends as will ſend, whatever Rice, Indico, or Naval Stores, they order to be landed at his Wharf, to him, he will ſell thoſe Articles for them at the uſual Rates.—He will make no Charge this Crop for any Rice ſtored in his Stores belonging to the Planters, not exceeding one Week, nor belonging to the Merchants, for that Time, provided 'tis ſhipt off at his Wharf.

N. B. There is no Wharf in Town where the Ships can lay more ſecure, or where their Cables will be ſo little liable to Damage, and ſuch Ships as land their Ballaſt at his Wharf this Crop, ſhall be charged no Wharfage, be aſſiſted to put it out, and have their Water Caſks filled with as good Water as any to be got in or near Town beſides, gratis.——Not a Wharf in Town better, if ſo well calculated, for diſpatching a Veſſel, or where there is ſo little Occaſion for Porters to roll Rice, &c. indeed that Charge may be altogether ſaved, or at moſt can coſt the Gentlemen in Trade a mere Trifle.
